*Prayer of Confession Congregation
and Invitation of God's Presence and Power
Our Father in heaven, nearer than our breath, thank you for this new year in Christ. Forgive us for drifting off to sleep, for saying the words of the creeds, prayers, scripture, and Advent readings yet not putting them into play. May these days be a time of awakening—to your good-ness, to your better-ness, to your best-ness. Wrap us in the armor of light. Come, Holy Spirit, wrap us in the arms of the life and love of Jesus and make us such persons of embrace for others. In the name of Jesus Messiah—the one who has come, is here, and is coming again—for his glory and our good. Amen.

Hear the Word of the LORD

"When it was time for Elizabeth to have her baby, she gave birth to a son. Her neighbors and relatives heard that the Lord had shown her great mercy, and they shared her joy.

On the eighth day they came to circumcise the child, and they were going to name him after his father Zechariah, but his mother spoke up and said, "No! He is to be called John."

They said to her, "There is no one among your relatives who has that name." Then they made signs to his father, to find out what he would like to name the child.

He asked for a writing tablet, and to everyone's astonishment he wrote, "His name is John."

Immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue set free, and he began to speak, praising God. All the neighbors were filled with awe, and throughout the hill country of Judea people were talking about all these things.

This is the Word of the LORD.
Thanks be to God.

Flowers

The flowers on the altar rail are placed in honor of the United Methodist Women for 153 years of serving in mission endeavors of the United Methodist Church.

The Christmas Creed

I believe that Christmas is more than a time for parties and ornaments; it is a time for remembering Christ and the incarnation of God's love in human flesh.

I believe there are gifts more important than the ones under the Christmas tree, such as the songs we teach our children, the way we share ourselves with friends, and the industry with which we set about reshaping the world in our time.

I believe that the finest carols are often sung by the poorest voices, from hearts made warm by the wonder of the season. I believe in the angel's message that we should not be afraid—that the child of Bethlehem is able to overcome all anxieties and insecurities.

I believe in prayer and quietness as a way of appropriating Christmas, that if I wait in silence I will experience the presence of the One born in the stables for he lives today as surely as he lived then. Amen.
